

Life Cycle of a Lie

When Jona moves from the big city of Vancouver to the tiny town of Carterton, fifteen-year-old Victoria Buckingham can't believe her luck. What are the chances of the new guy being interested in joining Save Our Streams, the local environmental group she is so proud of. But it turns out Vik isn't the only one who is captivated by the newcomer. Her boyfriend, Linc, is soon spending as much time with Jona as he is with her. When Jona is accused of a crime, Vik is the only one who can keep him out of trouble but only if she tells the truth about what really happened. What if she doesn't say anything? Is keeping her mouth shut really lying? And if she tells the truth, does she risk losing everything that matters to her?
